Dienson Milien

dajamilien@gmail.com | 646-804-8131 | linkedin.com/in/dienson-milien | Philadelphia, PA

Summary

Cybersecurity & Networking A.A.S. student at Community College of Philadelphia seeking a 2027 cybersecurity or IT internship. Building practical skills in Linux, Windows Server, and PowerShell through coursework, with customer-facing experience at Walmart. Interested in IT support, networking, and security operations.

Education

Community College of Philadelphia — Philadelphia, PA
Associate of Applied Science in Cybersecurity & Networking — Expected May 2028
Relevant Coursework: Network Technology, Introduction to Information Technology

Experience

Walmart Supercenter — Willow Grove, PA
Digital Personal Shopper — Aug. 2026 – Present

- Pick customer orders accurately and efficiently using handheld scanners and Walmart digital apps while meeting timed delivery and pickup windows.
- Verify item quality, quantity, and substitutions to ensure every order meets customer standards.
- Navigate store aisles to locate products quickly and maintain accurate order and inventory records.
- Greet and assist in-store customers, answering questions and providing a helpful experience during timed pick walks.
- Work efficiently in a fast-paced environment while balancing accuracy, speed, and customer service.
- Balance part-time work with college coursework, demonstrating reliability and time management.

Technical Skills

Networking: Network fundamentals; Network Technology coursework
IT Fundamentals: Introduction to Information Technology coursework
Operating Systems: Linux, Windows Server
Tools: PowerShell, handheld scanners, inventory systems, Walmart digital apps
Professional: Customer service, teamwork, time management, fast-paced environments